

Informed Consent for Supervision: Introduction to Sandtray Training

Event Terms and Conditions

I agree to the terms of the cancellation policy for this event.

I agree that the material provided in this training will be used for my personal professional development only and not reproduced in any way.

Informed Consent for Supervision

By participating in this training, I acknowledge that I am entering into a group supervision relationship with the supervisors and other participants.

Beth Scholes, MA, RCC #17444

Patricia Felzien, RCC #18714, CCC #10008276

Thrive Collective, 5960 Tyson Rd #203, Chilliwack, BC V2R 3R5

Purpose of Supervision

This training includes experiential Sandtray learning under the supervision of Beth Scholes and Patricia Felzien, both RCCs. Beth is trained in clinical supervision; Patricia brings advanced training and certification in Sandtray.

Supervision supports professional growth through experiential learning, case conceptualization, and reflective practice, with emphasis on trauma-informed care, ethical standards, and developing theoretical orientation.

Group Supervision & Confidentiality

Group supervision occurs in a shared learning environment. All participants must maintain confidentiality per BCACC's Code of Ethical Practice; however, it cannot be guaranteed in a group setting.

Supervisors' Responsibilities

- Facilitate group and individual supervision.
- Offer feedback based on developmental stage, clinical ethics, and learning outcomes.
- Collaborate with university faculty as appropriate.
- Not liable for client outcomes in participants' independent practice.

Supervisees' Responsibilities

- Engage with honesty, curiosity, and professionalism.
- Participate in case reflection and Sandtray activities.
- Bring forward clinical observations, questions, and ethical concerns.
- Respect confidentiality and group agreements.

Consent to Participate

I have read and understood the purpose, expectations, and structure of supervision within this Sandtray training. I consent to participate under the terms outlined above.